

JOEY'S JERKY PET TREAT RECALL

There has been a voluntary recall of Joey's Jerky brand Chicken Jerky for Dogs after the New Hampshire Public Health labs found the product positive for Salmonella.

At least 21 people have become ill between June 13 to the present due to the handling of the jerky product. All patients are from Hillsboro and Merrimack counties.

The product is produced in New Hampshire and is sold online and in six New Hampshire stores.

Consumers with questions should call the Bureau of Infectious Disease Control at 603-271-4496.
